Who Are The Friends?

The Friends of the Bloomfield Public Libraries is a nonprofit volunteer organization dedicated to the support of the libraries through fundraising and advocacy.

Our members are active users of the libraries and help raise community awareness and appreciation of their services and resources. We believe that excellent libraries are essential to our community.

Why Do The Friends Matter?

Funds we raise through memberships, donations, book sales and other events help to underwrite the cost of library activities and acquisitions for all ages. In the past year, our support has included:

- Spotlight Sunday Series
- Performing Artist and Teacher Don White
- Summer reading programs for children, teens and adults.
- Summer Intern from Bloomfield High School
- Portable hand held microphone system
- Our support averages over $10,000 a year!

The Spotlight Sunday Series continues to be made possible by the Friends! Pick up the flyers at the libraries!

What Can I Do?

- ▶ Be a member of the Friends. Membership is open to all interested people and organizations. You'll receive special mailings about upcoming Friends activities.
- ▶ Volunteer your time and expertise – for our book sales, programs and special projects, organizational leadership and library advocacy.
- ▶ Attend our meetings – 2PM on the first Thursday of each month (September through June) in the Prosser Public Library Community Room. All are welcome!
- ▶ Check the library website for more information about the Friends, including donations of books and media for our sales: www.prosserlibrary.info – select “Friends of the Library.”
- ▶ Be sure to explore the entire library website for information on activities, services and resources. Mark your calendar and participate often!
